Nature of the Information

Anworth assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of any information linked to via this website. The user of any such information uses such information at their own risk.

Forward-Looking Statements

This website contains or links to other websites that contain forward-looking statements about Anworth within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements are those that predict or describe future events or trends or that do not relate solely to historical matters. When used, statements which are not historical in nature, and those containing words such as “will,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “should,” “expect,” “believe,” “intend,” “assume” and similar expressions, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, those relating to: changes in short-term interest rates and the market value of Anworth’s mortgage-backed securities; changes in the prepayment rates on the mortgage loans securing Anworth’s mortgage-backed securities; Anworth’s ability to use borrowings to finance its assets; changes in government regulations affecting Anworth’s business; Anworth’s ability to maintain its qualification as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes; and risks associated with investing in mortgage related assets, including changes in business conditions and the general economy. These risks, uncertainties and factors, together with those discussed under the heading “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and other reports that Anworth files from time to time with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), including Anworth’s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K and other SEC filings, could affect Anworth’s business, results of operations and financial condition and could cause Anworth’s actual results to differ materially and adversely from Anworth’s historical results and/or those projected in any forward-looking statements it makes. All forward-looking statements speak only as the date they are made and Anworth does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of such statements.

Third Party Websites
